G
You're on the phone with your girlfriend
        D
She's upset
                                              Am
She's going off about something that you said
                                          C
'Cause she doesn't get your humor like I do
G
I'm in my room
                          D
It's a typical Tuesday night
                                                  Am
I'm listening to the kind of music she doesn't like
                                          C
And she'll never know your story like I do'
Am
But she wears short skirts
C
I wear T-shirts
G
She's cheer captain
D
And I'm on the bleachers
Am                              C
Dreaming about the day when you wake up
                       D
And find that what you're looking for has been here the whole time
         G
If you can see I'm the one who understands you
D                                    Am
Been here all along so why can't you see
                C
You belong with me
                G
You belong with me
G                                                 D
Walking the streets with you and your worn-out jeans
                                                Am
I can't help thinking this is how it ought to be
                                          C
Laughing on a park bench, thinking to myself

Hey isn't this easy
     G                                                        D
And you've got a smile that could light up this whole town
                                                          Am
I haven't seen it in a while since she brought you down

And now that I'm without your kisses
C F
I'll be needing stitches
Am G
I'm tripping over myself,
C F
I'm aching begging you to come help
Am G
And now that I'm without your kisses
C F
I'll be needing stitches
